

HAVE YOU EVER BUILT A SCHOOL?

YOU HAVE? GREAT.
YOU COULD BE JUST THE TYPE OF PERSON WE'RE LOOKING FOR.

In the not too distant past, students went from school to college to law school to law firm. Now, you're more likely to spend a year out doing something that little bit different than you are to jump straight onto the great corporate conveyor belt. These days, qualifications plus life experience plus personality is the magic key. Which is why at Lawrence Graham we fully embrace that. We're after well-rounded people, not square pegs. Versatility, not predictability.

So bring us your experience, your colour, your humour and your vitality. We'll help you shine. To find out more about a career in law with us, simply visit www.lg-legal.com/graduates
