

Before you can follow
your lawyer's advice, you have to be able to follow it.

Do you sometimes feel you need an interpreter when you meet with your lawyers?

Someone to decipher the mumbo-jumbo of legal jargon into language you can understand?

You're not alone.

At Nabarro, many of our clients tell us that not all lawyers are as clear and unequivocal in their advice as we are. To quote:

"All too often when you take advice from lawyers, it's couched in any number of "get out of jail" cards. Nabarro's lack of conditionality is extremely refreshing."

"What sets Nabarro apart is a willingness to delve beneath the surface of legalities and truly understand the commercial result required."

"We don't want a learned dissertation. Nabarro are very good at telling you how it is."

Such compliments are testimony to our passion for clarity. Clarity in the way we understand your objectives. And clarity in the way we deliver our advice.

We call it user-friendly law. And it's our way of helping you move your business forward quickly and painlessly.
